EXECUTIVE ORDER

Establishing an Ethics Policy for Executive Branch Agencies and Executive Branch Employees

WHEREAS, State employees hold themselves to high ethical standards and act with integrity in their positions of public trust;

WHEREAS, confidence in government increases when State employees make decisions based upon the best interests of the public at large, without influence by those who may seek special favors and without regard to personal gain;

WHEREAS, compliance with a strong ethics policy protects public employees from any perception of wrongdoing; and,

WHEREAS, the Utah state law governing ethical standards of public employees can and should be improved;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jon M. Huntsman Jr., Governor of the State of Utah, by the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of this State do hereby order that the Executive Branch and all Executive Branch employees are subject to the following restrictions:

1. Application

a. This order applies to all Executive Branch department or agency employees. This order may be adopted by independently elected officers and their employees. This order does not apply to any Legislative Branch employee or Judicial Branch employee.

2. Prohibition Against the Receipt of Gifts

a. Subject to the exceptions set forth below, an employee covered by this order is prohibited from accepting a gift or other compensation that might be intended to influence or reward the individual in the performance of official business. This prohibition shall apply notwithstanding Utah Code Ann. Section

b. For purposes of this order, the term "gift" does not include:

- i. campaign contributions received in accordance with Title 20A, Chapter 11, Utah Code Annotated;
- ii. food, refreshments, or meals of limited value;
- iii. an item given on behalf of a foreign government that becomes the property of the State;
- iv. rewards and prizes open to the general public or all state employees;
- v. plaques or mementos recognizing service;
- vi. trinkets or mementos of nominal value;
- vii. gifts from extended family members or personal friends;
- viii. small efforts of common courtesy or other services of nominal monetary value;
- ix. funeral flowers or memorials; and
- x. attendance or participation at events sponsored by another governmental entity.

c. If an employee receives a gift that cannot be accepted, the employee may return the gift, pay its market value, or donate the gift to the State of Utah. If the gift is perishable or not practical to return, the gift may, with approval of the Department or Agency head, be shared with co-workers or given to charity.

3. Prohibition Against Nepotism in Hiring and Contracting

a. An employee covered by this order may not take part in any hiring or employment decision relating to a family member. If a hiring or employment matter arises relating to a family member, then the employee must advise his or her supervisor of the relationship, and must be recused from any and all discussions or decisions relating to the matter. This prohibition shall apply notwithstanding the exceptions contained in Utah Code Ann. Section 52-3-1.

An employee covered by this order may not take part in any contracting decision: (i) relating to a family member; or (ii) relating to any entity in which a family member is an officer, director or partner, or in which a family member owns or controls 10% or more of the stock of such entity. If a contracting matter arises relating to a family member, then the employee must advise his or her supervisor of the relationship, and must be recused from any and all discussions or decisions relating to the matter.
