NOTICES OF RULE EFFECTIVE DATES43

NOTICES OF PROPOSED RULES

A state agency may file a PROPOSED RULE when it determines the need for a substantive change to an existing rule. With a NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE, an agency may create a new rule, amend an existing rule, repeal an existing rule, or repeal an existing rule and reenact a new rule. Filings received between February 02, 2024, 12:00 a.m., and February 15, 2024, 11:59 p.m. are included in this, the March 01, 2024, issue of the Utah State Digest.

In this publication, each PROPOSED RULE is preceded by a RULE ANALYSIS. This analysis provides summary information about the PROPOSED RULE including the name of a contact person, anticipated cost impact of the rule, and legal cross-references.

The law requires that an agency accept public comment on PROPOSED RULES published in this issue of the Utah State Digest until at least April 01, 2024. The agency may accept comment beyond this date and will indicate the last day the agency will accept comment in the RULE ANALYSIS. The agency may also hold public hearings. Additionally, citizens or organizations may request the agency hold a hearing on a specific PROPOSED RULE. Section 63G-3-302 requires that a hearing request be received by the agency proposing the rule "in writing not more than 15 days after the publication date of the proposed rule."

From the end of the public comment period through July 01, 2024, the agency may notify the Office of Administrative Rules that it wants to make the PROPOSED RULE effective. The agency sets the effective date. The date may be no fewer than seven calendar days after the close of the public comment period nor more than 120 days after the publication date of this issue of the Utah State Digest. Alternatively, the agency may file a CHANGE IN PROPOSED RULE in response to comments received. If the Office of Administrative Rules does not receive a NOTICE OF EFFECTIVE DATE or a CHANGE IN PROPOSED RULE, the PROPOSED RULE lapses.

The public, interest groups, and governmental agencies are invited to review and comment on PROPOSED RULES. Comment may be directed to the contact person identified on the RULE ANALYSIS for each rule.

PROPOSED RULES are governed by Section 63G-3-301, Rule R15-2, and Sections R15-4-3, R15-4-4, R15-4-5a, R15-4-9, and R15-4-10.

General Information

2. Rule or section catchline:
R277-308. New Educator Induction and Mentoring
3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change:
This rule is being updated to clarify language related to establishing requirements for induction of new educators.
4. Summary of the new rule or change:
The amendments specifically correct one rule reference number and also change the term "university-based" to "education".
This change broadens the application of this rule to apply to all educator preparation programs, and not just university-based programs.

Fiscal Information

5. Provide an estimate and written explanation of the aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:
A) State budget:
This rule change is not expected to have fiscal impact on state government revenues or expenditures.
The amendments change a rule reference number and change "university-based" to "education" to acknowledge all possible preparation programs. There may be education preparation programs that are based at another entity that is not a university.

This does not add any costs for the Utah State Board of Education (USB E). There is no impact to the USB E or other state budgets.

B) Local governments:

This rule change is not expected to have fiscal impact on local governments' revenues or expenditures.

The amendments change a rule reference number and change "university-based" to "education" to acknowledge all possible preparation programs. There may be education preparation programs that are based at another entity that is not a university.

This does not add any costs for Local Education Agencies (LEAs). There is no fiscal impact to LEAs or other local governments.

C) Small businesses ("small business" means a business employing 1-49 persons):

This rule change is not expected to have fiscal impact on small businesses' revenues or expenditures.

This only affects educator preparation.

D) Non-small businesses ("non-small business" means a business employing 50 or more persons):

There are no non-small businesses in the industry in question, Elementary and Secondary Schools (North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) 611110). Because there are no non-small businesses, they do not account for any service delivery for Elementary and Secondary Schools. Therefore, non-small businesses are not expected to receive increased or decreased revenues per year. This proposed rule change is not expected to have any fiscal impact on non-small businesses' revenues or expenditures because there are no applicable non-small businesses, and it does not require any expenditures of, or generate revenue for non-small businesses.

E) Persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state, or local government entities ("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency):

This rule change is not expected to have fiscal impact on revenues or expenditures for persons other than small businesses, businesses, or local government entities.

There is no fiscal impact to educators or other persons because the changes do not add any requirements for educators. The changes simply clarify that there are now non-university-based educator preparation programs.

F) Compliance costs for affected persons (How much will it cost an impacted entity to adhere to this rule or its changes?):

There are no compliance costs for affected persons.

There are no compliance costs for educators or other persons related to the technical changes.

There is no fiscal impact to educators or other persons because the changes do not add any requirements for educators. The changes simply clarify that there are now non-university-based educator preparation programs.

G) Regulatory Impact Summary Table (This table only includes fiscal impacts that could be measured. If there are inestimable fiscal impacts, they will not be included in this table. Inestimable impacts will be included in narratives above.)

R337-5. Allowance for Loan and Lease Losses - Credit Unions
3. Reason for this change:
The current expected credit loss (CECL) model under Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2016-13 has been implemented to simplify US GAAP and provide for more timely recognition of credit losses.
As a result, CECL was adopted for all federally insured credit unions by the NCUA. The NCUA created an exception to CECL for credit unions under $10,000,000 in assets.
This amendment is necessary to allow state-chartered credit unions with assets less than $10,000,000 to continue to use the incurred loss model.
4. Summary of this change:
The rule is amended to make it applicable for state-chartered credit unions with assets less than $10,000,000.

This amendment maintains the current methodology to determine the amounts needed in the allowance account for all state-chartered credit unions with assets less than $10,000,000 under the jurisdiction of the Department of Financial Institutions in accordance with changes in the industry and federal law.

General Information

2. Rule or section catchline:
R426-7. Emergency Medical Services Prehospital Data System Rules
3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change:
The purpose of this change is to remove the Emergency Department data set from this rule, as it already exists within another Department of Health and Human Services' (Department) rule.
This change also adds language to require reporting on the newest NEMSIS dataset and updates the state's dataset to the newest version. The change alters the reporting time from a rolling 30 days to 7 days.
This change requires data to meet different standards and to be reconciled monthly.

The change also aligns Utah with national standards, reflecting major updates to the national reporting system since the rule's previous update in 2016.

4. Summary of the new rule or change:

This amendment will change the reporting time frame from 30 days to 7 days, remove the Emergency Department data set, update required data collection to NEMSIS 3.5, alter required standards of completion and frequency of reconciliation, and remove the one-hour time requirement for sharing data with hospitals.

General Information

2. Rule or section catchline:

R746-312. Electrical Interconnection

3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change:

Section R746-312-16, Public Utility Maps, Records and Reports: This section imposes an annual reporting requirement on electric public utilities.

The Public Service Commission (PSC) generally exercises less regulatory authority over electrical cooperatives than investor-owned utilities, see, e.g., Subsection 54-7-12(7) (exempting cooperatives from statute requiring utilities to obtain the PSC's approval changing customer rates).

The PSC convened a public process and held a technical conference on 09/25/2023 to receive feedback from stakeholders as to whether this reporting requirement is necessary for electrical cooperatives.

At the technical conference, a consensus among stakeholders existed in support of amending this rule to remove the requirement for electrical cooperatives because the report is of limited usefulness to regulators owing to regulators' more limited jurisdiction over electrical cooperatives and the burden of requiring electrical cooperatives to submit the report outweighed any potential benefit.

Accordingly, the proposed amendment exempts electrical cooperatives from the reporting requirement by making it applicable only to public utilities for which the "governing authority" is the PSC. Subsection R746-312-2(14) provides the "governing authority" of an electrical cooperative is its board of directors, as opposed to the PSC.

This amendment also makes nonsubstantive changes to the rule text for adherence to the Rulewriting Manual for Utah standards.

4. Summary of the new rule or change:
 The amendment exempts electrical cooperatives from the reporting requirement this rule imposes by making it applicable only to public utilities for which the governing authority is the PSC.

Fiscal Information

5. Provide an estimate and written explanation of the aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:

A) State budget:
 The amendment is expected to have no measurable impact on the state's budget because this rule imposes an annual reporting requirement on private electric utilities, and these private entities bear the costs associated with preparing the annual reports.

 The proposed amendment makes nonsubstantive changes to the existing rule aside from eliminating the reporting requirement for electrical cooperatives, which should result in saved compliance costs for those cooperatives but will have no impact on the state budget.

B) Local governments:
 The amendment does not concern local governments and is not expected to impact them because it concerns electrical cooperatives, not municipal utilities, and serves to remove an existing regulatory requirement for electrical cooperatives.

C) Small businesses ("small business" means a business employing 1-49 persons):
 To the extent an electric cooperative is a small business, the amendment can only decrease regulatory compliance costs as it removes a regulatory reporting requirement for electrical cooperatives, though the PSC does not have information sufficient to determine the extent of savings for such cooperatives.

 The amendment is expected to have no impact on small businesses that are not electrical cooperatives.

D) Non-small businesses ("non-small business" means a business employing 50 or more persons):
 To the extent an electric cooperative is a non-small business, the amendment can only decrease regulatory compliance costs as it removes a regulatory reporting requirement for electrical cooperatives, though the PSC does not have information sufficient to determine the extent of savings for such cooperatives.

 The amendment is expected to have no impact on non-small businesses that are not electrical cooperatives.

E) Persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state, or local government entities ("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency):

The amendment is expected to have no impact on persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state, or local government entities, unless such persons are electrical cooperatives in which case the amendment can only decrease regulatory compliance costs as it removes an existing regulatory reporting requirement.

The PSC does not have sufficient information to estimate the amount of such savings for any affected electrical cooperative.

F) Compliance costs for affected persons (How much will it cost an impacted entity to adhere to this rule or its changes?):

There are no anticipated compliance costs for any affected entity or person.

The amendment can only result in cost savings as it removes an existing regulatory reporting requirement for electrical cooperatives.

G) Regulatory Impact Summary Table (This table only includes fiscal impacts that could be measured. If there are inestimable fiscal impacts, they will not be included in this table. Inestimable impacts will be included in narratives above.)

H) Department head comments on fiscal impact and approval of regulatory impact analysis:

Commissioners David R. Clark and John S. Harvey, Ph.D., of the Public Service Commission provided the following comments:

As discussed above, the amendment removes an existing regulatory reporting requirement for electrical cooperatives. The only businesses or entities it stands to affect are electrical cooperatives, and any fiscal impact will necessarily result in cost savings because the amendment removes an existing regulatory reporting requirement.

General Information

2. Rule or section catchline:
R746-313. Electrical Service Reliability

3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change:

Section R746-313-7, Reporting on Electric Service Reliability: This section imposes an annual reporting requirement on electric public utilities relating to electric service reliability.

The Public Service Commission (PSC) generally exercises less regulatory authority over electrical cooperatives than investor-owned utilities, see, e.g., Subsection 54-7-12(7) (exempting cooperatives from statute requiring utilities to obtain the PSC's approval changing customer rates).

The PSC convened a public process and held a technical conference on 09/25/2023 to receive feedback from stakeholders as to whether the reporting requirement is necessary for electrical cooperatives.

At the technical conference, a consensus existed in support of amending this rule to remove the reporting requirement for electrical cooperatives because the reports are of limited usefulness to regulators owing to regulators' more limited jurisdiction over electrical cooperatives and the burden of requiring electrical cooperatives to submit the report outweighs any potential benefit.

Accordingly, the proposed amendment exempts electrical cooperatives from the reporting requirement by excising certain language pertaining only to electrical cooperatives and making the reporting requirement applicable only to public utilities for which the "governing authority" is the PSC. Subsection R746-313-2(4) provides the "governing authority" of an electrical cooperative is its board of directors, as opposed to the PSC.

Section R746-313-8, Major Event Reporting by Electric Utilities: This section imposes a requirement on electric public utilities to file reports to the PSC within 30 days of certain outage events.

The PSC generally exercises less regulatory authority over electrical cooperatives than investor-owned utilities, see, e.g., Subsection 54-7-12(7) (exempting cooperatives from statute requiring utilities to obtain the PSC's approval changing customer rates).

The PSC convened a public process and held a technical conference on 09/25/2023 to receive feedback from stakeholders as to whether the reporting requirement is necessary for electrical cooperatives.

At the technical conference, a consensus existed in support of amending this rule to remove the reporting requirement for electrical cooperatives because the reports are of limited usefulness to regulators owing to regulators' more limited jurisdiction over electrical cooperatives and the burden of requiring electrical cooperatives to submit the reports outweighs any potential benefit.

Accordingly, the proposed amendment exempts electrical cooperatives from the reporting requirement by excising the language applicable to electrical cooperatives, which in the rule's terms are defined as entities whose governing authority is not the PSC, see Subsection R746-313-2(4).

This amendment also makes nonsubstantive changes to the rule text for adherence to the Rulewriting Manual for Utah standards.

4. Summary of the new rule or change:

The amendment exempts electrical cooperatives from the reporting requirement this rule imposes by making it applicable only to public utilities for which the governing authority is the PSC and excising language pertaining to electrical cooperatives.

Fiscal Information

5. Provide an estimate and written explanation of the aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:

A) State budget:

The amendment is expected to have no measurable impact on the state's budget because this rule imposes an annual reporting requirement on private electric utilities, and these private entities bear the costs associated with preparing the annual reports.

The proposed amendment makes no substantive changes to the existing rule aside from eliminating the reporting requirement for electrical cooperatives, which should result in saved compliance costs for those cooperatives but will have no impact on the state budget.

B) Local governments:

The amendment does not concern local governments and is not expected to impact them because it concerns electrical cooperatives, not municipal utilities, and serves to remove an existing regulatory reporting requirement for electrical cooperatives.

C) Small businesses ("small business" means a business employing 1-49 persons):

To the extent an electric cooperative is a small business, the amendment can only decrease regulatory compliance costs as it removes a regulatory reporting requirement for electrical cooperatives, though the PSC does not have information sufficient to determine the extent of savings for such cooperatives.

The amendment is expected to have no impact on small businesses that are not electrical cooperatives.

D) Non-small businesses ("non-small business" means a business employing 50 or more persons):

To the extent an electric cooperative is a non-small business, the amendment can only decrease regulatory compliance costs as it removes a regulatory reporting requirement for electrical cooperatives, though the PSC does not have information sufficient to determine the extent of savings for such cooperatives.

The amendment is expected to have no impact on non-small businesses that are not electrical cooperatives.

E) Persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state, or local government entities ("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency):

The amendment is expected to have no impact on persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state, or local government entities, unless such persons are electrical cooperatives in which case the amendment can only decrease regulatory compliance costs as it removes an existing regulatory reporting requirement.

The PSC does not have sufficient information to estimate the amount of such savings for any affected electrical cooperative.

F) Compliance costs for affected persons (How much will it cost an impacted entity to adhere to this rule or its changes?):

There are no anticipated compliance costs for any affected entity or person.

The amendment can only result in cost savings as it removes an existing regulatory reporting requirement for electrical cooperatives.

G) Regulatory Impact Summary Table (This table only includes fiscal impacts that could be measured. If there are inestimable fiscal impacts, they will not be included in this table. Inestimable impacts will be included in narratives above.)

General Information

2. Rule or section catchline:
R926-13. Transportation, Program Development - Designated Scenic Byways
3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change:
The Program Development Division is proposing these revisions to Rule R926-13 due to exclusion of a section of the Dinosaur Diamond Prehistoric Highway Scenic Byway and the addition of the Zion National Scenic Byway.
4. Summary of the new rule or change:
The proposed revisions to this rule include: 1) the change to Subsection R926-13-4(29) adds Subsection (f); 2) the changes to Section R926-13-5 change Subsection (5)(c) to replace the acronym "NSB" with "National Scenic Byway" and also in Subsection (7)(a)(iii); a) add Subsection (9) to identify the "Zion National Scenic Byway"; b) add Subsection (9)(a); and c) add Subsection (9)(b).

Fiscal Information

5. Provide an estimate and written explanation of the aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:
A) State budget:
There is no measurable fiscal impact on the state budget because this rule amendment merely designates a new section of road as a State Scenic Byway and excludes a different section of road from being part of the State Scenic Byway system. These actions are clerical in nature and have no tangible fiscal impact on the state budget.
B) Local governments:
The Utah Department of Transportation (UDOT) anticipates this proposed change will not have a fiscal impact on local governments because this rule does not apply to local governments.

C) Small businesses ("small business" means a business employing 1-49 persons):

UDOT anticipates this proposed change may have a positive fiscal impact on small businesses engaged in outdoor advertising because such businesses may install outdoor advertising in the section of highway denoted in the proposed Subsection R926-13-4(29)(f).

D) Non-small businesses ("non-small business" means a business employing 50 or more persons):

UDOT anticipates this proposed change may have a positive fiscal impact on small businesses engaged in outdoor advertising because such business may install outdoor advertising in the section of highway denoted in the proposed Subsection R926-13-4(29)(f).

E) Persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state, or local government entities ("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency):

UDOT anticipates this proposed change will not have an impact on persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state, or local government entities due to the clerical nature of this rule amendment.

F) Compliance costs for affected persons (How much will it cost an impacted entity to adhere to this rule or its changes?):

There are no compliance costs for affected persons due to the clerical nature of this rule amendment.

NOTICES OF 120-DAY (EMERGENCY) RULES

An agency may file a 120-DAY (EMERGENCY) RULE when it finds that regular rulemaking procedures would:

- (a) cause an imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare;
- (b) cause an imminent budget reduction because of budget restraints or federal requirements; or
- (c) place the agency in violation of federal or state law (Subsection 63G-3-304(1)).

As with a PROPOSED RULE, a 120-DAY RULE is preceded by a RULE ANALYSIS. This analysis provides summary information about the 120-DAY RULE including the name of a contact person, justification for filing a 120-DAY RULE, anticipated cost impact of the rule, and legal cross-references.

A 120-DAY RULE is effective when filed with the Office of Administrative Rules, or on a later date designated by the agency. A 120-DAY RULE is effective for 120 days or until it is superseded by a permanent rule. Because of its temporary nature, a 120-DAY RULE is not codified as part of the Utah Administrative Code.

The law does not require a public comment period for 120-DAY RULES. However, when an agency files a 120-DAY RULE, it may file a PROPOSED RULE at the same time, to make the requirements permanent.

Emergency or 120-DAY RULES are governed by Section 63G-3-304, and Section R15-4-8.

General Information

2. Rule or section catchline:
R70-101. Bedding, Upholstered Furniture, and Quilted Clothing
3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change:
Due to an increase of online sales of bedding, upholstered furniture, and quilted clothing in recent years, the Department of Agriculture and Food (Department) published rule changes in April 2023 that clarify that law label requirements in Rule R70-101 are applicable to online, as well as brick and mortar sales. Based on feedback from the furniture industry regarding the difficulty of satisfying the new rule requirements, however, the Department has agreed to remove the references to online sales and draft new changes that balance the need to convey important information to consumers, ensure industry consistency, and take into consideration the complicated nature of made to order furniture manufacturing.
4. Summary of the new rule or change:
The changes remove references to online sales from Sections R70-101-2, R70-101-3, and R70-101-18.
5A) The agency finds that regular rulemaking would:
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> cause an imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare;
<input type="checkbox"/> cause an imminent budget reduction because of budget restraints or federal requirements; or

<input type="checkbox"/> place the agency in violation of federal or state law.
B) Specific reasons and justifications for this finding:
The Department has met with large furniture manufacturers who have reported that they are unable to satisfy the requirements of the current rule with respect to online sales. The Department is concerned that these manufacturers will choose to no longer sell products in Utah unless the rule requirements are changed. The potential loss of business in Utah could be in the millions of dollars each year and would be very detrimental to public welfare.

Fiscal Information

6. Provide an estimate and written explanation of the aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:
A) State budget:
The changes published in April 2023 have not been fully implemented. Removing them will not impact the state budget. The program will continue to operate under the current resources.
B) Local governments:
Local governments will not be impacted by the changes because they do not sell or regulate bedding, upholstered furniture, or quilted clothing.
C) Small businesses ("small business" means a business employing 1-49 persons):
Small businesses will not be impacted because the previous changes that are being removed have not been fully implemented.
D) Persons other than small businesses, state, or local government entities ("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency):
Other persons will not be impacted because the previous changes that are being removed have not been fully implemented.
E) Compliance costs for affected persons (How much will it cost an impacted entity to adhere to this rule or its changes?):
Compliance costs will not change. The rule changes decrease the regulatory burden.
F) Comments by the department head on the fiscal impact this rule may have on businesses (Include the name and title of the department head):
This rule change will not have a fiscal impact on business. Craig W Buttars, Commissioner.

General Information

2. Rule or section catchline:
R386-702. Communicable Disease Rule
3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change:
On 07/07/2022, the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) reported a shortage of erythromycin ophthalmic ointment. Health systems in Utah are now reporting that the shortage is impacting local supply, and lack of appropriate treatment can result in adverse health outcomes for infants born in Utah at risk for exposure to N. gonorrhoeae, including severe eye infections and blindness.

The current rule language is restrictive and does not allow for the use of alternative treatment options.

4. Summary of the new rule or change:

This rule change will remove outdated clinical guidance and increase the treatment options for healthcare providers by allowing alternative treatment options through Centers for Disease Control and Prevention guidance.

In addition, this filing also updates outdated statute to coincide with the Department of Health and Human Services code recodification. S.B. 38, 39, 40, and 41 (2023 General Session) combined Title 26, Utah Health Code, and Title 62A, Utah Human Services Code, into a new Title 26B, Utah Health and Human Services Code.

5A) The agency finds that regular rulemaking would:

- cause an imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare;
- cause an imminent budget reduction because of budget restraints or federal requirements; or
- place the agency in violation of federal or state law.

B) Specific reasons and justifications for this finding:

The absence of treatment options allowed by the current rule would put infant Utahns at risk of eye infections and blindness.

Changes in Section R386-702-14 allow for additional treatment options.

All other changes to the rule are statute citation updates.

Fiscal Information

6. Provide an estimate and written explanation of the aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:

A) State budget:

There is no anticipated cost or savings because the changes do not affect existing operations.

This rule change adds additional available treatments for health care providers to select for patient care. The state does not have costs or savings associated with this rule change because providers are not being recommended one alternative treatment over another.

Furthermore, this does not affect state government.

B) Local governments:

There is no anticipated cost or savings because the changes do not affect existing operations.

This rule change adds additional available treatments for health care providers to select for patient care. Local governments do not have costs or savings associated with this rule change because providers are not being recommended one alternative treatment over another.

Furthermore, this does not affect local governments.

C) Small businesses ("small business" means a business employing 1-49 persons):

There is no anticipated cost or savings because the changes do not affect existing operations.

This rule change adds additional available treatments for health care providers to select for patient care. Small businesses do not have costs or savings associated with this rule change because providers are not being recommended one alternative treatment over another.

Furthermore, this does not affect small businesses.

D) Persons other than small businesses, state, or local government entities ("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency):

There is no anticipated cost or savings because the changes do not affect existing operations.

This rule change adds additional available treatments for health care providers to select for patient care. Other persons do not have costs or savings associated with this rule change because providers are not being recommended one alternative treatment over another.

Furthermore, this does not affect other persons.

E) Compliance costs for affected persons (How much will it cost an impacted entity to adhere to this rule or its changes?):

There are no anticipated compliance costs or savings because this change will allow providers to pivot to additional treatment options when erythromycin ophthalmic ointment is unavailable. It is not anticipated that obtaining those additional treatment options will be more or less burdensome than obtaining erythromycin ophthalmic ointment.

F) Comments by the department head on the fiscal impact this rule may have on businesses (Include the name and title of the department head):

I, Tracy S. Gruber, Executive Director, have read and approved this fiscal analysis. I acknowledge that there is no anticipated fiscal impact to businesses as a result of this emergency rule because the changes do not affect existing operations.

End of the Notices of 120-Day (Emergency) Rules Section

FIVE-YEAR NOTICES OF REVIEW AND STATEMENTS OF CONTINUATION

Within five years of an administrative rule's original enactment or last five-year review, the agency is required to review the rule. This review is intended to help the agency determine, and to notify the public, that the administrative rule in force is still authorized by statute and necessary. Upon reviewing a rule, an agency may: repeal the rule by filing a PROPOSED RULE; continue the rule as it is by filing a FIVE-YEAR NOTICE OF REVIEW AND STATEMENT OF CONTINUATION (REVIEW); or amend the rule by filing a PROPOSED RULE and by filing a REVIEW. By filing a REVIEW, the agency indicates that the rule is still necessary.

A REVIEW is not followed by the rule text. The rule text that is being continued may be found in the online edition of the Utah Administrative Code available at adminrules.utah.gov. The rule text may also be inspected at the agency or the Office of Administrative Rules. REVIEWS are effective upon filing.

REVIEWS are governed by Section 63G-3-305.

General Information

2. Rule catchline:
R307-511. Oil and Gas Industry: Associated Gas Flaring
3. A concise explanation of the particular statutory provisions under which the rule is enacted and how these provisions authorize or require this rule:
The statutory authorization for this rule falls under Subsection 19-2-104(1)(a). In January of 2018, the Air Quality Board adopted a series of oil and gas rules that allowed the source category's minor source permitting process to be streamlined. These rules require most of the oil and gas wells in the state to follow a set of rules instead of obtaining and complying with an approval order. As the rules have been implemented and applied, the Division of Air Quality (DAQ) learned that some oil and gas wells were unable to take advantage of this streamlined approach as the set of rules did not include the control of associated gas from some wells. This rule is necessary to require the flaring of associated gas in these oil and gas wells so they can utilize the permitting process.
4. A summary of written comments received during and since the last five-year review of this rule from interested persons supporting or opposing this rule:
Rule R307-511 was a new rule in 2019, therefore, this is the first five-year review since it was made effective.

However, it should be noted that there was an amendment made to this rule in 2022. During this rulemaking, the public comment period was May 1, 2022, through May 31, 2022.

During this time, DAQ received a total of 25 public comments. DAQ responded to each comment submitted and these comments and a full summary of responses were included in the July 2022 Air Quality Board packet which is available to the public on the DAQ website at this link: <https://deq.utah.gov/air-quality/july-6-2022-agenda-air-quality-board-meeting>

5. A reasoned justification for continuation of this rule, including reasons why the agency disagrees with comments in opposition to this rule, if any:

This rule requires the associated natural gas from operating wells to be controlled as is required for other equipment, such as storage vessels and dehydrators. It defines key terms, identifies the applicability, identifies flaring requirements, and establishes required recordkeeping. Therefore, this rule should be continued.

5. A reasoned justification for continuation of this rule, including reasons why the agency disagrees with comments in opposition to this rule, if any:
