NOTICES OF PROPOSED RULES

A state agency may file a PROPOSED RULE when it determines the need for a substantive change to an existing rule. With a NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE, an agency may create a new rule, amend an existing rule, repeal an existing rule, or repeal an existing rule and reenact a new rule. Filings received between February 01, 2025, 12:00 a.m., and February 14, 2025, 11:59 p.m. are included in this, the March 01, 2025, issue of the Utah State Digest.

In this publication, each PROPOSED RULE is preceded by a RULE ANALYSIS. This analysis provides summary information about the PROPOSED RULE including the name of a contact person, anticipated cost impact of the rule, and legal cross-references.

The law requires that an agency accept public comment on PROPOSED RULES published in this issue of the Utah State Digest until at least March 31, 2025. The agency may accept comment beyond this date and will indicate the last day the agency will accept comment in the RULE ANALYSIS. The agency may also hold public hearings. Additionally, citizens or organizations may request the agency hold a hearing on a specific PROPOSED RULE. Section 63G-3-302 requires that a hearing request be received by the agency proposing the rule "in writing not more than 15 days after the publication date of the proposed rule."

From the end of the public comment period through July 01, 2025, the agency may notify the Office of Administrative Rules that it wants to make the PROPOSED RULE effective. The agency sets the effective date. The date may be no fewer than seven calendar days after the close of the public comment period nor more than 120 days after the publication date of this issue of the Utah State Digest. Alternatively, the agency may file a CHANGE IN PROPOSED RULE in response to comments received. If the Office of Administrative Rules does not receive a NOTICE OF EFFECTIVE DATE or a CHANGE IN PROPOSED RULE, the PROPOSED RULE lapses.

The public, interest groups, and governmental agencies are invited to review and comment on PROPOSED RULES. Comment may be directed to the contact person identified on the RULE ANALYSIS for each rule.

PROPOSED RULES are governed by Section 63G-3-301, Rule R15-2, and Sections R15-4-3, R15-4-4, R15-4-5a, R15-4-9, and R15-4-10.

General Information

2. Rule or section catchline:
R152-1. Division of Consumer Protection Buyer Beware List Rule
3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change:
This rule is being repealed and reenacted in accordance with: H.B. 40, passed in the 2024 General Session, which granted the Division of Consumer Protection (Division) permissive rulemaking authority to create a list of people who violate laws enforced by the Division; a review prompted by Executive Order No. 2021-12; and as a result of the five-year review required by Section 63G-3-305.
4. Summary of the new rule or change:
This rule establishes a public list in accordance with Subsection 13-2-1(3), and the process by which a person may be removed from the public list. The substantive differences between the repealed and reenacted versions of this rule include: 1) differences in the cited authority for this rule; 2) adding a direct citation to statute for reasons for inclusion on the list; and 3) removal of failure to respond to a complaint as a reason for inclusion on the list.  The title of this rule is also being changed to reflect statutory language.  This rule is being repealed and reenacted, rather than simply amended, because the changes necessary to conform to the Rulewriting Manual for Utah and the structure of other Division rules were so extensive that little of the original rule remained.

R277-609. Standards for LEA Discipline Plans and Emergency Safety Interventions
3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change:
This rule is being amended due to changes to both Rules R277-608 and R277-609 to include updates from H.B. 14 passed in the 2024 General Session and to outline requirements for school discipline and related policies.
4. Summary of the new rule or change:
The amendments specifically change the title of the rule to "Standards for LEA Discipline Policy" and add an oversight Category 2.
In addition, this amendment updates this rule to remove almost all language regarding Emergency Safety Interventions (ESI) and instead make reference to the ESI policy found in Rule R277-608.
The amendments also remove Section R277-609-3 and other related incorporated document references.

Fiscal Information

5. Provide an estimate and written explanation of the aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:
A) State budget:
This rule change is not expected to have fiscal impact on state government revenues or expenditures. These changes are a result of the passage of H.B. 14 (2024). The Utah State Board of Education (USBE) believes that the fiscal impact for the USBE and Local Education Agencies (LEAs) and other entities have been captured in the fiscal note to H.B. 14 (2024) and this rule does not add any additional fiscal impacts.

B) Local governments:

This rule change is not expected to have fiscal impact on local governments' revenues or expenditures. These changes are a result of the passage of H.B. 14 (2024). The USBE believes that the fiscal impact for USBE and LEAs and other entities have been captured in the fiscal note to H.B. 14 (2024) and this rule does not add any additional fiscal impacts.

C) Small businesses ("small business" means a business employing 1-49 persons):

This rule change is not expected to have fiscal impact on small businesses' revenues or expenditures. This only affects USBE and LEAs.

D) Non-small businesses ("non-small business" means a business employing 50 or more persons):

There are no non-small businesses in the industry in question, Elementary and Secondary Schools (North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) 611110). Because there are no non-small businesses, they do not account for any service delivery for Elementary and Secondary Schools. Therefore, non-small businesses are not expected to receive increased or decreased revenues per year. This proposed rule change is not expected to have any fiscal impact on non-small businesses' revenues or expenditures because there are no applicable non-small businesses, and it does not require any expenditures of, or generate revenue for non-small businesses.

E) Persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state, or local government entities ("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency):

This rule change is not expected to have fiscal impact on revenues or expenditures for persons other than small businesses, businesses, or local government entities. These changes are a result of the passage of H.B. 14 (2024). The USBE believes that the fiscal impact for USBE and LEAs and other entities have been captured in the fiscal note to H.B. 14 (2024) and this rule does not add any additional fiscal impacts.

F) Compliance costs for affected persons (How much will it cost an impacted entity to adhere to this rule or its changes?):

There are no compliance costs for affected persons. These changes are a result of the passage of H.B. 14 (2024). R277-627. Early Warning Program
3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change:
This rule is being amended to support the Request for Proposal (RFP) process.

4. Summary of the new rule or change:

The amendments specifically include defining an "early warning system" and defining the thresholds as required by statute.

Fiscal Information*5. Provide an estimate and written explanation of the aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:*A) State budget:

This rule change is not expected to have fiscal impact on state government revenues or expenditures. In the 2024 General Session, H.B. 84, School Safety Amendments, made it a requirement for all Local Education Agencies (LEAs) to utilize an Early Warning System, whether it be the state provided option through a statewide contract, or another option chosen by the LEA that meets the requirements of the statute.

This rule allows the Utah State Board of Education (USBE) to procure the early warning system state contract. The USBE believes the associated costs were captured in the fiscal note to H.B. 84 (2024) and this rule does not add costs for the USBE, LEAs, or other entities or individuals.

B) Local governments:

This rule change is not expected to have fiscal impact on local governments' revenues or expenditures. R277-704. Financial and Economic Literacy: Integration into Core Curriculum
3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change:
This rule is being amended to bring it into alignment with statute.
4. Summary of the new rule or change:
The amendments specifically include: 1) updating definitions, 2) adding an oversight "Category 4", 3) clarifying professional development provisions, and 4) updating language on course standards.

Fiscal Information

5. Provide an estimate and written explanation of the aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:
A) State budget:
This rule change is not expected to have fiscal impact on state government revenues or expenditures. The oversight framework categorization is part of the Utah State Board of Education's (USBE's) effort through Rule R277-111 to categorize each rule into an oversight framework category, or to delineate for stakeholders what type of monitoring or oversight is required by the USBE resulting from this rule.  This categorization does not add any requirements or resources in and of itself for the USBE or Local Education Agencies (LEAs). The definition updates and professional development clarifications are a result of S.B. 192 passed in the 2024 General Session. The USBE believes any fiscal impact was captured in the fiscal note to S.B. 192 (2024) and this rule does not add any additional impacts.
B) Local governments:
This rule change is not expected to have fiscal impact on local governments' revenues or expenditures. The oversight framework categorization is part of the USBE's effort through Rule R277-111 to categorize each rule into an oversight framework category, or to delineate for stakeholders what type of monitoring or oversight is required by the USBE resulting from this rule.  This categorization does not add any requirements or resources in and of itself for the USBE or LEAs. The USBE believes any fiscal impact was captured in the fiscal note to S.B. 192 (2024) and this rule does not add any additional impacts.
C) Small businesses ("small business" means a business employing 1-49 persons):
This rule change is not expected to have fiscal impact on small businesses' revenues or expenditures. This rule only applies to LEAs and the USBE.

D) Non-small businesses ("non-small business" means a business employing 50 or more persons):

There are no non-small businesses in the industry in question, Elementary and Secondary Schools (North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) 611110). Because there are no non-small businesses, they do not account for any service delivery for Elementary and Secondary Schools. Therefore, non-small businesses are not expected to receive increased or decreased revenues per year. This proposed rule change is not expected to have any fiscal impact on non-small businesses' revenues or expenditures because there are no applicable non-small businesses, and it does not require any expenditures of, or generate revenue for non-small businesses.

E) Persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state, or local government entities ("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency):

This rule change is not expected to have fiscal impact on revenues or expenditures for persons other than small businesses, businesses, or local government entities. The oversight framework categorization is part of the USBE's effort through Rule R277-111 to categorize each rule into an oversight framework category, or to delineate for stakeholders what type of monitoring or oversight is required by the USBE resulting from this rule.

This categorization does not add any requirements or resources in and of itself for the USBE or LEAs. The USBE believes any fiscal impacts were captured in the fiscal note to S.B. 192 (2024) and this rule does not add any additional impacts.

F) Compliance costs for affected persons (How much will it cost an impacted entity to adhere to this rule or its changes?):

There are no compliance costs for affected persons. The oversight framework categorization is part of the USBE's effort through Rule R277-111 to categorize each rule into an oversight framework category, or to delineate for stakeholders what type of monitoring or oversight is required by the USBE resulting from this rule.

This categorization does not add any requirements or resources in and of itself for the USBE or LEAs. The definition updates and professional development clarifications are a result of S.B. 192 (2024). The USBE believes any fiscal impacts were captured in the fiscal note to S.B. 192 (2024) and this rule does not add any additional impacts.

2. Rule or section catchline:
R307-110-17. Section IX, Control Measures for Area and Point Sources, Part H, Emission Limits
3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change:
The purpose of the amendment to Section R307-110-17 is to amend the Utah State Implementation Plan, Subsections IX.H.11 and IX.H.12 Emission Limits and Operating Practices to comply with the Clean Air Act requirements for Serious PM2.5 nonattainment areas as listed in Title 40 Code of Federal Regulations, Part 51, Subpart Z (40 CFR 51 Subpart Z). Section R307-110-17 incorporates amendments to Subsections IX.H.11 and IX.H.12 into the rule and shall be amended to change the Board adoption date to the anticipated adoption date of the amended plan.
4. Summary of the new rule or change:
This rule amendment is in response to feedback and direction provided by the US Environmental Protection Agency after the original submittal of the Utah Serious PM2.5 nonattainment area State Implementation Plan as adopted by the Utah Air Quality Board on January 2, 2019.
The following rule amendments are proposed:
1) additional recordkeeping and reporting requirements under Subsection IX.H.11 General Requirements;
2) the removal of source-wide PM2.5, NOx, and SO2 caps for four sources under Subsection IX.H.12 Source-Specific Emission Limitations;
3) the addition of new NOx limitations for the same four sources under Subsection IX.H.12 Source-Specific Emission Limitations; and
4) minor changes to reflect current process units at two sources under Subsection IX.H.12 Source-Specific Emission Limitations.

Fiscal Information

5. Provide an estimate and written explanation of the aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:
A) State budget:
This rule amendment is not expected to create additional costs or savings for the state government. These facilities are already permitted and inspected under existing rules and have existing stack testing requirements in place. Inspectors will be able to confirm compliance as part of normal stack testing processes.
B) Local governments:
This rule amendment is not expected to impact local governments; therefore, no costs or savings are anticipated.
C) Small businesses ("small business" means a business employing 1-49 persons):
This rule amendment is not expected to impact small businesses; therefore, no costs or savings are anticipated.
D) Non-small businesses ("non-small business" means a business employing 50 or more persons):
The Utah Division of Air Quality anticipates that these changes to the proposed rule will impact four non-small businesses. The impacts are described below.
These changes will require new stack testing requirements on 12 emission units located across four non-small businesses. Stack testing costs were calculated based on information submitted to the UDAQ as part of the BACT/BACM process in 2017 for the PM2.5 Serious SIP. Assuming an average of $5,441 for stack testing costs, and accounting for inflation changes from 2017 to 2025, an average stack testing value of $7,071.38 was used. Stack tests will be required every three years.
Therefore, for 12 units stack testing every three years across four non-small businesses, the estimated impact will be $84,856.56 every three years.
E) Persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state, or local government entities ("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency ):

This amendment does not apply to persons other than small business, non-small businesses, state, or local government entities; therefore, no additional costs are expected because of these changes.

F) Compliance costs for affected persons (How much will it cost an impacted entity to adhere to this rule or its changes?):

Compliance costs will consist of additional stack testing for four non-small businesses. The impacts are described below. Compliance costs are estimated at $84,856.56 every three years for additional stack testing requirements.

General Information

2. Rule or section catchline:
R307-150. Emission Inventories

3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change:

Rule R307-150 is being updated to reflect what our State and Local Emissions Inventory System (SLEIS) database is capable of.

Ultimately, the Division of Air Quality (DAQ) needs to catch the rule up on Hazardous Air Pollutants (HAPs) to reflect what sources are already reporting and what SLEIS is also already able to do.

Additionally, DAQ is removing the HAPs exemption limits as staff were unable to replicate the calculation methodology employed in the existing rule. SLEIS is now able to automatically populate any HAPs emission factors with standard, well defined methodology, therefore negating the need for exemption limits. This is a much-simplified means for most facilities to report their HAPs emissions.

DAQ staff believe this will also provide more accurate and consistent HAPs data while also streamlining HAPs reporting with criteria pollutants. DAQ is also adding the explicit authority to collect mobile emissions from point sources. Over half of the facilities reporting in SLEIS were already including emissions. This change will allow staff to level the playing field and mandate all facilities to report these emissions. This will result in a more comprehensive point source inventory which can be leveraged for modeling and policy purposes.

Staff is also taking the opportunity to update the sulfur dioxide (SO<sub>2</sub>) reporting requirements by removing a conflicting statement indicating an erroneous end date for SO<sub>2</sub> reporting.

Additionally, other revisions have been made to bring this rule into compliance with EO No. 2021-12.

4. Summary of the new rule or change:

The amendments to Rule R307-150 do the following:

- 1) remove HAPs threshold calculation and HAPs reporting exemptions;
- 2) update SO<sub>2</sub> reporting language;
- 3) remove the outdated timeline for SO<sub>2</sub> reporting period;
- 4) require mobile emissions reporting by point sources, include the definition of mobile emissions (by modifying reference to 40 CFR 51 to include "which never leave the property");
- 5) add mobile emissions reporting requirement to Sections R307-150-5 and R307-150-6; and
- 6) rule language changes to bring this rule into compliance with EO No. 2021-12.

Fiscal Information*5. Provide an estimate and written explanation of the aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:*A) State budget:

There are no anticipated costs or savings to the state budget associated with the amendments to Rule R307-150. No additional costs are expected as the automated HAPs enhancement is already included in the current SLEIS maintenance agreement and mobile emissions are already reportable, and reported by many facilities, in SLEIS.

All other changes are administrative language changes for portions of this rule already in effect.

B) Local governments:

If not already reporting, there is a possible workload increase to track mobile source use on a facility. However, there are no or negligible costs anticipated for HAPs reporting due to automated processes for local governments associated with the amendments to Rule R307-150.

C) Small businesses ("small business" means a business employing 1-49 persons):

If not already reporting, there is a possible workload increase to track mobile source use on a facility. However, there are no or negligible costs anticipated for HAPs reporting due to automated processes for small businesses associated with the amendments to Rule R307-150.

D) Non-small businesses ("non-small business" means a business employing 50 or more persons):

If not already reporting, there is a possible workload increase to track mobile source use on a facility. However, there are no or negligible costs anticipated for HAPs reporting due to automated processes for non-small businesses associated with the amendments to Rule R307-150.

E) Persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state, or local government entities ("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency):

If not already reporting, there is a possible workload increase to track mobile source use on a facility. However, there are no or negligible costs anticipated for HAPs reporting due to automated processes for non-small businesses associated with the amendments to Rule R307-150.

F) Compliance costs for affected persons (How much will it cost an impacted entity to adhere to this rule or its changes?):

If not already reporting, there is a possible workload increase to track mobile source use on a facility. However, given that the majority of facilities already report these emissions, there are a limited number of facilities that do not report and these all vary in operational size and the possible mobile equipment operating on each facility is unknown at this time.

Therefore, predicting labor cost (current hourly pay rates are unknown) and possible time needed to determine equipment types to load into the inventory database is unknown due to the potential variability of each operation's mobile quantity and types.

Conversely, workloads costs should be significantly reduced as SLEIS provides the means to input activity data (e.g. fuel use or operating hours, both of which are typically tracked by sources as part of their normal business practices) to calculate emissions. Thus, once the source adds the equipment types and number thereof to SLEIS, they only need to input activity data going forward as SLEIS will carry their equipment type and number from year-to-year.

Removing the HAPs reporting thresholds should have negligible workload increase as SLEIS will automatically calculate HAPs based on the already required activity data for their annual emission inventory reports.

Additionally, there is a strong potential that this will reduce workload for sources as they are already expected to determine if their HAP emissions are above or below the threshold in the current rule which involves a complex calculation for each pollutant.

For smaller sources, it is not uncommon that administrative staff are tasked with submitting the inventory and are confused by these thresholds. This not only expends their time and agency time supporting them but also exposes sources to potential compliance costs if they fail to report a HAP as they guessed or erroneously calculated that they were below the threshold. SLEIS's HAPs auto-calculation capability alleviates this burden and allows sources to simply populate their processes with already-required activity data.

2. Rule or section catchline:
R313-12. General Provisions
3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change:
The Division of Waste Management and Radiation Control, Radiation (Division) has been modernizing it's processes for licenses, permits, and registrations. New processes for submission of applications in electronic formats are being created. This amendment updates the rules for submission of electronic documents to better align with the new processes.
4. Summary of the new rule or change:
Changes are being made in Section R313-12-111 to align this rule for submission of electronic documents with new, modern processes for the electronic submission of documents and applications for license, permits, and registrations.  Additionally, the Division has made corrections to formatting, typographical, and other minor errors that exist in this rule.

Fiscal Information

5. Provide an estimate and written explanation of the aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:
A) State budget:
There may be some small savings for state agencies that have licenses or registrations under the Radiation Control rules related to submitting applications and documents electronically instead of in a hard copy paper format. However, these savings are believed to be small and unmeasurable.  This rule change does not add or remove any requirements for state agencies.
B) Local governments:
There may be some small savings for local governments that have licenses or registrations under the Radiation Control rules related to submitting applications and documents electronically instead of in a hard copy paper format. However, these savings are believed to be small and unmeasurable.  This rule change does not add or remove any requirements for local governments.
C) Small businesses ("small business" means a business employing 1-49 persons):
There may be some small savings for small businesses that have licenses or registrations under the Radiation Control rules related to submitting applications and documents electronically instead of in a hard copy paper format. However, these savings are believed to be small and unmeasurable.  This rule change does not add or remove any requirements for small businesses.
D) Non-small businesses ("non-small business" means a business employing 50 or more persons):
There may be some small savings for non-small businesses that have licenses or registrations under the Radiation Control rules related to submitting applications and documents electronically instead of in a hard copy paper format. However, these savings are believed to be small and unmeasurable.  This rule change does not add or remove any requirements for non-small businesses.
E) Persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state, or local government entities ("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency ):
There may be some small savings for persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state or local governments that have licenses or registrations under the Radiation Control rules related to submitting applications and documents electronically instead of in a hard copy paper format. However, these savings are believed to be small and unmeasurable.

This rule change does not add or remove any requirements for persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state or local governments.

F) Compliance costs for affected persons (How much will it cost an impacted entity to adhere to this rule or its changes?):

Because this rule change does not add any new requirements, there will be no additional compliance costs for affected persons who are required to submit applications and documents to the Division to comply with the Radiation Control rules.

General Information

2. Rule or section catchline:
R313-28. Use of X-Rays in the Healing Arts

3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change:

Subsection R313-28-31(5) prohibits the use of portable or mobile equipment unless it is impractical to transfer the patient to a stationary installation.

Historically, it has been the policy of the Division of Waste Management and Radiation Control, Radiation (Division) that registrants can use mobile x-ray equipment as if it were stationary as long as the equipment is used in a room that was designed and constructed for the use of x-ray equipment and as long as the equipment is not moved from the room.

This rule change will make this policy into rule.

4. Summary of the new rule or change:

Language is being added to Subsection R313-28-3(5) to exempt mobile equipment that is used in a room that was constructed in accordance with a shielding design in accordance with Sections R313-28-32 and R313-28-200 and is not moved from room to room from the prohibition for use of mobile equipment contained in this rule.

Additionally, the Division has made corrections to formatting, typographical, and other minor errors that exist in the rule.

Fiscal Information*5. Provide an estimate and written explanation of the aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:*A) State budget:

It is not anticipated that there will be any costs to the state budget based on this rule change. Making the Division policy a rule will make it more widely known and could result in registrants purchasing mobile equipment instead of stationary equipment because mobile equipment is cheaper in some cases. This could result in savings, but the cost of x-ray equipment varies widely depending on the type of unit and it's features, making it impractical to determine what the savings may be.

It is also impossible for the Division to determine if any existing or new registrants will decide to use mobile equipment instead of stationary.

B) Local governments:

It is not anticipated that there will be any costs to local governments based on this rule change. Making the Division policy a rule will make it more widely known and could result in registrants purchasing mobile equipment instead of stationary equipment because mobile equipment is cheaper in some cases. This could result in savings, but the cost of x-ray equipment varies widely depending on the type of unit and it's features, making it impractical to determine what the savings may be.

It is also impossible for the Division to determine if any existing or new registrants will decide to use mobile equipment instead of stationary.

C) Small businesses ("small business" means a business employing 1-49 persons):

It is not anticipated that there will be any costs to small businesses based on this rule change. Making the Division policy a rule will make it more widely known and could result in registrants purchasing mobile equipment instead of stationary equipment because mobile equipment is cheaper in some cases. This could result in savings, but the cost of x-ray equipment varies widely depending on the type of unit and it's features, making it impractical to determine what the savings may be.

It is also impossible for the Division to determine if any existing or new registrants will decide to use mobile equipment instead of stationary.

D) Non-small businesses ("non-small business" means a business employing 50 or more persons):

It is not anticipated that there will be any costs to non-small businesses based on this rule change. Making the Division policy a rule will make it more widely known and could result in registrants purchasing mobile equipment instead of stationary equipment because mobile equipment is cheaper in some cases. This could result in savings, but the cost of x-ray equipment varies widely depending on the type of unit and it's features, making it impractical to determine what the savings may be. It is also impossible for the Division to determine if any existing or new registrants will decide to use mobile equipment instead of stationary.

E) Persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state, or local government entities ("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency):

It is not anticipated that there will be any costs to persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state, or local governments based on this rule change. This could result in a savings, but the cost of x-ray equipment varies widely depending on the type of unit and it's features making it impractical to determine what the savings may be.

It is also impossible for the Division to determine if any existing or new registrants will decide to use mobile equipment instead of stationary.

F) Compliance costs for affected persons (How much will it cost an impacted entity to adhere to this rule or its changes?):

Because this rule change does not add any new requirements, there will be no additional compliance costs for affected persons who are required to comply with the Radiation Control rules.

General Information

2. Rule or section catchline:
R313-35. Requirements for X-Ray Equipment Used for Non-Medical Applications
3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change:
The purpose of these changes is to add definitions to this rule and update and clarify this rule for veterinary x-ray systems that have not been updated since they were originally written in 1997.  X-ray technology has advanced significantly since the late 1990's and veterinarians are now using the same equipment that is used on humans.
4. Summary of the new rule or change:
The following definitions are being added in Section R313-35-2: Computed tomography, CT, fluoroscopic imaging assembly, mobile x-ray equipment, portable x-ray equipment, protective apron, protective barrier, scattered radiation, stationary x-ray equipment, useful beam, and x-ray equipment. To ensure consistency the majority of these definitions refer to the section of the rules where the definition already exists.  Subsection R313-35-110(1)(g) is being added to the rule to make it clear that x-ray equipment designed for human exams that is being used for veterinary exams must be FDA approved for use in the United States.  Subsection R313-35-110(1)(h) is being added to the rules to provide the Director of the Division of Waste Management and Radiation Control, Radiation (Division) with the authority to order users not in compliance with Subsection R313-35-110(1)(g) to stop using the equipment.  Subsection R313-35-110(2) requires structural shielding for stationary x-ray systems. Subsection R313-35-110(2)(a) is being added to require the shielding design that is done for the structural shielding for rooms where CT and fluoroscopic units are used to be submitted to the Director for review as it is for shielding designs done for human medical facilities using these types of equipment.

Additional language is being added to Subsection R313-35-110(3) to make it clear that registrants are responsible for directing the operation of their x-ray equipment ensuring that the requirements of the rules under Subsection R313-35-110(3) are met.

Subsections R313-35-110(3)(e) through (g) are being added to ensure that individuals operating x-ray equipment in a veterinary setting are trained and have the same levels of protection as those in human medical settings. These requirements already exist in Rule R313-15, adding them here just clarifies that veterinarians must comply with the radiation safety requirements like all other users of x-ray equipment.

Subsection R313-35-110(4) is being added to require veterinary registrants to maintain certain information regarding their x-ray equipment.

Subsection R313-35-110(5) is being added to make it clear that veterinarians using hand-held x-ray equipment to provide protection to members of the public equivalent to what is required for members of the public in human medical facilities. These requirements already exist in Rule R313-15, adding them here just clarifies that veterinarians must comply with the radiation safety requirements like all other users of x-ray equipment.

Section R313-35-111 requires veterinary x-ray systems to have a warning label and sets a leakage level for the amount of leakage radiation allowed.

Section R313-35-112 requires veterinarians using fluoroscopic x-ray systems to comply with the same requirements as are required for facilities using this equipment for human exams.

Additionally, the Division has made corrections to formatting, typographical, and other minor errors that exist in the rule.

Fiscal Information

5. Provide an estimate and written explanation of the aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:
A) State budget:
There is no anticipated fiscal impact to the state budget as a result of this filing, as the filing's change only applies to residential licensees and clients.
B) Local governments:
There is no anticipated fiscal impact to local governments as a result of this filing, as the filing's change only applies to residential licensees and clients.

There is no anticipated fiscal impact to small businesses as a result of this filing, as this filing allows small business residential licensees greater flexibility in the use of alternate sleeping arrangements other than a client's assigned bedroom but does not require that licensees change existing processes.
Any potential cost or savings is inestimable because it is impossible to know to what extent small business residential licensees will alter processes as a result of this filing and what associated fiscal impact those changes would have.
D) Non-small businesses ("non-small business" means a business employing 50 or more persons):

General Information

2. Rule or section catchline:
R614-1-4. Incorporation of Federal Standards
3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change:
The purpose of this amendment to Utah's Occupational Safety and Health (UOSH) rules is to: 1) incorporate the most recent edition of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR); and 2) correct several inadvertent errors in the Hazard Communication Standard (HCS), 29 CFR 1910.1200, that were published in the Federal Register on May 20, 2024.  The federal Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) identified several errors in the regulatory text and appendices to the HCS which pertain to the classification of hazardous chemicals and information presented on labels and Safety Data Sheets (SDSs). These errors, although minor and primarily typographical in nature, should be addressed expeditiously to avoid confusion or unnecessary costs in the regulated community due to incorporation of errors on labels and SDSs.
4. Summary of the new rule or change:
The proposed amendments are: 1) Federal Register Vol. 89, No. 196, Wednesday, October 9, 2024, Rules and Regulations, pages 81829 to and including 81836, "Hazard Communication Standard; Final Rule – correction and technical amendment," is incorporated by reference.  a) OSHA inadvertently misnumbered portions of paragraph (d) in the HCS final rule, resulting in erroneous cross-references in other areas of the HCS. To ensure that the regulatory text is clear and consistent with OSHA's intent, OSHA rearranged and renumbered 29 CFR 1910.1200(d)(1) by incorporating the text currently designated as (d)(1)(ii) into (d)(1) and renumbering the provisions currently designated as (d)(1)(i)(A) and (d)(1)(i)(B) to (d)(1)(i) and (d)(1)(ii), respectively.

- b) A phrase regarding transmission of labels by electronic or other technological means was inadvertently included in paragraph (f)(11). OSHA did not intend to include this phrase in paragraph (f)(11) and therefore removed it.
- c) OSHA corrected text in 29 CFR 1910.1200 appendices to align with the HCS preamble and updated label elements in appendix C to conform with the Globally Harmonized System of Classification and Labelling of Chemicals (GHS).
- 2) Incorporates, by reference, the July 1, 2024, edition of 29 CFR 1904 (except 29 CFR 1904.36 and the workplace fatality, injury and illness reporting requirements found in 29 CFR 1904.1, 1904.2, 1904.7 and 1904.39); 29 CFR 1908; 29 CFR 1910.6 and 1910.21 through the end of part 1910; and 29 CFR 1926.6 and 1926.20 through the end of part 1926.

Fiscal Information

5. Provide an estimate and written explanation of the aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:

These errors are minor and primarily typographical in nature.
B) Local governments:
Local governments have no administration or enforcement obligations under the proposed amendment.  Changes to the HCS include correction of errors in the regulatory text and appendices which pertain to the classification of hazardous chemicals and information presented on labels and SDSs. These errors are minor and primarily typographical in nature.
C) Small businesses ("small business" means a business employing 1-49 persons):
Changes to the HCS will not result in costs or savings to small businesses.  Changes include correction of errors in the regulatory text and appendices which pertain to the classification of hazardous chemicals and information presented on labels and SDSs. These errors are minor and primarily typographical in nature.
D) Non-small businesses ("non-small business" means a business employing 50 or more persons):
Changes to the HCS will not result in costs or savings to non-small businesses.  Changes include correction of errors in the regulatory text and appendices which pertain to the classification of hazardous chemicals and information presented on labels and SDSs. These errors are minor and primarily typographical in nature.
E) Persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state, or local government entities ("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency):

B) Local governments:
This rule does not impact local governments.  Local governments are not impacted by the requirements in this rule and therefore, the rule will not result in direct expenditures for local governments.
C) Small businesses ("small business" means a business employing 1-49 persons):

D) Non-small businesses ("non-small business" means a business employing 50 or more persons):

The Office of the Commissioner of Higher Education does not need to hire additional staff or spend additional funds to establish procedures and comply with the procedures for accepting complaints against an institution for violations of statutory prohibitions on submissions, trainings, or discriminatory practices. Therefore, this rule will not cost any state entity additional funds to implement.

Please address questions regarding information on this notice to the persons listed above.

General Information

2. Rule or section catchline:
R907-80. Disposition of Surplus Land
3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change:
Section R907-80-5 provides a procedure for giving notice to the relevant local government before selling surplus property at an auction.  The proposed changes would establish a more defined process for cities and counties to express an interest in a property and eventually purchase it from the Utah Department of Transportation (UDOT).  The current process does not provide clear deadlines or require any sort of tangible commitment, which has led to properties remaining in limbo for years.
4. Summary of the new rule or change:
The proposed changes set forth the following process: 1) UDOT provides notice that property will be sold, 2) local government has 60 days to enter into a purchase agreement with UDOT, 3) provide 3% refundable earnest money, 4) agree to complete purchase within 180 days, 5) local government may extend purchase agreement for an additional 180 days, 6) one-time extension, 7) provide 5% nonrefundable earnest money, and 8) if the local government does not purchase the property, UDOT may sell it at a public auction.

Fiscal Information

5. Provide an estimate and written explanation of the aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:
A) State budget:
This amendment outlines a notice procedure for selling surplus property at an auction, and that notice procedure does not introduce any cost or savings to state budgets.

C) Small businesses ("small business" means a business employing 1-49 persons):

F) Compliance costs for affected persons (How much will it cost an impacted entity to adhere to this rule or its changes?):

NOTICES OF CHANGES IN PROPOSED RULES

After an agency has published a PROPOSED RULE in the Utah State Bulletin, it may receive comment that requires the PROPOSED RULE to be altered before it goes into effect. A CHANGE IN PROPOSED RULE allows an agency to respond to comments it receives.

As with a PROPOSED RULE, a CHANGE IN PROPOSED RULE is preceded by a RULE ANALYSIS. This analysis provides summary information about the CHANGE IN PROPOSED RULE including the name of a contact person, anticipated cost impact of the rule, and legal cross-references.

While the law does not designate a comment period for a CHANGE IN PROPOSED RULE, it does provide for a 30-day waiting period. An agency may accept additional comments during this period and, at its option, may designate a comment period or may hold a public hearing. The 30-day waiting period for CHANGES IN PROPOSED RULES published in this issue of the Utah State Digest ends March 31, 2025.

From the end of the 30-day waiting period through July 01, 2025, an agency may notify the Office of Administrative Rules that it wants to make the CHANGE IN PROPOSED RULE effective. When an agency submits a NOTICE OF EFFECTIVE DATE for a CHANGE IN PROPOSED RULE, the PROPOSED RULE as amended by the CHANGE IN PROPOSED RULE becomes the effective rule. The agency sets the effective date. The date may be no fewer than 30 days nor more than 120 days after the publication date of the CHANGE IN PROPOSED RULE. If the agency designates a public comment period, the effective date may be no fewer than seven calendar days after the close of the public comment period nor more than 120 days after the publication date. Alternatively, the agency may file another CHANGE IN PROPOSED RULE in response to additional comments received. If the Office of Administrative Rules does not receive a NOTICE OF EFFECTIVE DATE or another CHANGE IN PROPOSED RULE by the end of the 120-day period after publication, the CHANGE IN PROPOSED RULE filing, along with its associated PROPOSED RULE, lapses.

CHANGES IN PROPOSED RULES are governed by Section 63G-3-303, Rule R15-2, and Sections R15-4-3, R15-4-4, R15-4-5b, R15-4-7, R15-4-9, and R15-4-10.

FIVE-YEAR NOTICES OF REVIEW AND STATEMENTS OF CONTINUATION

Within five years of an administrative rule's original enactment or last five-year review, the agency is required to review the rule. This review is intended to help the agency determine, and to notify the public, that the administrative rule in force is still authorized by statute and necessary. Upon reviewing a rule, an agency may: repeal the rule by filing a PROPOSED RULE; continue the rule as it is by filing a FIVE-YEAR NOTICE OF REVIEW AND STATEMENT OF CONTINUATION (REVIEW); or amend the rule by filing a PROPOSED RULE and by filing a REVIEW. By filing a REVIEW, the agency indicates that the rule is still necessary.

A REVIEW is not followed by the rule text. The rule text that is being continued may be found in the online edition of the Utah Administrative Code available at adminrules.utah.gov. The rule text may also be inspected at the agency or the Office of Administrative Rules. REVIEWS are effective upon filing.

REVIEWS are governed by Section 63G-3-305.

General Information

2. Rule catchline:	R25-21. Medical Cannabis Payment Provider Standards
3. A concise explanation of the particular statutory provisions under which the rule is enacted and how these provisions authorize or require this rule:
This rule was enacted under the authority of Subsection 4-41a-108(2)(a), which gives the Department of Government Operations', Division of Finance (Division) the authority to establish the standards for identifying payment providers that demonstrate the functional and technical ability to safely conduct financial transactions related to medical cannabis, including transactions for medical cannabis shipments.
4. A summary of written comments received during and since the last five-year review of this rule from interested persons supporting or opposing this rule:
There were no comments supporting or opposing this rule since the last five-year review.

5. A reasoned justification for continuation of this rule, including reasons why the agency disagrees with comments in opposition to this rule, if any:

The Legislature has a proposal to amend the code which will remove the Division from this process. If the amendment is approved, this rule will be unnecessary. Until they decide, this rule should remain in effect so that Utah MRB's can request new payment providers and get them approved. Therefore, this rule should be continued.

The Division has an amended version of Rule R25-21 that has yet to be submitted. The Division will wait to submit the amended version due to the likelihood that the code giving the Division the authority to enact this rule will be repealed.

FIVE-YEAR NOTICES OF REVIEW AND STATEMENTS OF CONTINUATION

4. A summary of written comments received during and since the last five-year review of this rule from interested persons supporting or opposing this rule:

The Department of Insurance has received no written comments regarding this rule during the past five years.

5. A reasoned justification for continuation of this rule, including reasons why the agency disagrees with comments in opposition to this rule, if any:

This rule provides instruction to rate service organizations concerning the filings they will use in Utah to comply with the Insurance Code. It is a key component in the regulation of loss cost filings developed by all rate service organizations, such as the National Council on Compensation Insurance (NCCI) and the Insurance Service Office (ISO), that are licensed to do business in Utah. Therefore, this rule should be continued.

3. A concise explanation of the particular statutory provisions under which the rule is enacted and how these provisions authorize or require this rule:
Under Section 23-21a-3, the Wildlife Board and Division of Wildlife Resources (Division) are authorized to provide for the management of Gunnison, Cub and Hat Islands for the protection and perpetuation of the American white pelican.
4. A summary of written comments received during and since the last five-year review of this rule from interested persons supporting or opposing this rule:

5. A reasoned justification for continuation of this rule, including reasons why the agency disagrees with comments in opposition to this rule, if any:

This rule places restrictions on access on, around and over these islands. This protection from disturbance will ensure the continued use of these areas and result in successful brood rearing by the birds. The other habitat needs of these colonial nesting waterbirds are being met and their populations are healthy at this time. Therefore, this rule should be continued.

General Information

2. Rule catchline:
R746-312. Electrical Interconnection
3. A concise explanation of the particular statutory provisions under which the rule is enacted and how these provisions authorize or require this rule:
Utah law requires electric utilities to allow owners of certain kinds of generation resources to interconnect with electric utilities' distribution systems. For example, Section 54-12-2 requires electric utilities to purchase power from certain types of small generation resources (e.g., renewable resources).
Similarly, Section 54-15-103 requires electric utilities to establish net metering programs that allow the utilities' customers who elect to install solar panels on their properties to push any surplus energy those panels produce to the utilities' distribution systems. See also Section 54-15-106 (authorizing the Public Service Commission (PSC) to establish administrative rules that govern such interconnections).
More generally, Section 54-4-14, authorizes the PSC to adopt rules that require utilities to maintain and operate their distribution systems in a manner that promotes and safeguards public safety, and Section 54-4-7 requires terms of service to be just and reasonable.
Because the law requires electric utilities to allow these interconnections on their distribution systems and requires the PSC to ensure those who interconnect receive just and reasonable terms of service and do not create a danger to the public health, this rule is necessary.

FIVE-YEAR NOTICES OF REVIEW AND STATEMENTS OF CONTINUATION

4. A summary of written comments received during and since the last five-year review of this rule from interested persons supporting or opposing this rule:

No comments have been received since the last five-year review of this rule.

5. A reasoned justification for continuation of this rule, including reasons why the agency disagrees with comments in opposition to this rule, if any:

Electric utilities' distribution systems provide an essential public service. Interconnection of generation resources onto these distribution systems is a technical matter, both in engineering and contractual terms, and this rule is necessary such that electric utilities can comply with the law's requirements to allow certain generators to interconnect in an efficient, fair, and responsible manner. Therefore, this rule should be continued.

NOTICES OF RULE EFFECTIVE DATES

State law provides for agencies to make their administrative rules effective and enforceable after publication in the Utah State Bulletin. In the case of PROPOSED RULES or CHANGES IN PROPOSED RULES with a designated comment period, the law permits an agency to make a rule effective no fewer than seven calendar days after the close of the public comment period, nor more than 120 days after the publication date. In the case of CHANGES IN PROPOSED RULES with no designated comment period, the law permits an agency to make a rule effective on any date including or after the thirtieth day after the rule's publication date, but not more than 120 days after the publication date. If an agency fails to file a NOTICE OF EFFECTIVE DATE within 120 days from the publication of a PROPOSED RULE or a related CHANGE IN PROPOSED RULE the rule lapses.

Agencies have notified the Office of Administrative Rules that the rules listed below have been made effective.

NOTICES OF EFFECTIVE DATE are governed by Subsection 63G-3-301(12), Section 63G-3-303, and Sections R15-4-5a and R15-4-5b.
